

Advertise with Travel the Canyon: The most visited travel website in the region. This comprehensive travel site provides more information for travelers than any other marketing venue available. Our goal is to share Canyon Country with the world, Since 2006 the growth and success has been greater than expected we will continue to provide exclusive appealing displays on all the activities available in our amazing landscape. By doing this we bring tourism dollars into our communities. We believe it is important to provide affordable advertisement to the many small business that make up our industry. That is why we have the lowest advertising rates and easily the highest value. Rates starting at $40 /year giving you the best exposure in the tourism market place. Compare our rates and value with any other advertising venue and you will see.

Why advertise with Travel the Canyon? Think Referrals! Travel the Canyon is as targeted as travel marketing gets! When you advertise on our site you are supporting our mission to build a global internet presence for the region you do business in.

Canyon Country Media has worked hard to create an internet presence, and marketing campaign strong enough to rival travel marketing campaigns around the world. Now we are the authority for online travel marketing in the Thompson Fraser Corridors. Every day we connect with thousands of people from around the world.

About Travel the Canyon: Travel the Canyon is a travel guide for South - Western British Columbia serving the regions from Harrison Hot Springs to Cache Creek through Hope and the Fraser and Thompson Corridors. Our mission is to share Canyon Country

British Columbia with the world. We are primarily funded by local businesses who advertise on our site. Since 2005 Travel the Canyon has continued to build a strong internet presence for Canyon Country British Columbia. We will continue to grow and develop the site by providing you appealing and exclusive coverage of our amazing region. Thank you for supporting!

Travel the Canyon on Social Media: Right now marketing in social media is the newest way to be everywhere your potential client is. The newest way to connect with global markets is to make a presence on popular social networking sites like Facebook, YouTube, Twitter etc. Growing your marketing arms and creating new audiences around the world! Travel the Canyon has made a presence on the internet social media communities, we have created large communities within these networking sites, and have been successful in creating membership and viewership in these popular sites growing by the thousands every month! When you advertise with us you have access to get involved and take advantage of our ever growing social media audience.

www.travelthecanyon.com/facebook.html

www.facebook.com/travelthecanyon

www.twitter.com/travelthecanyon

www.youtube.com/travelthecanyon

find us on other popular social networking sites like Webshots, Orkut, Foursquare, Myspace, Flickr, Knowl, Buzz and our own blog site legaladdictions.ca

Contact Riley Forman

Canyon Country Media, Hope BC
info@travelthecanyon.com

“Adventure is in our Nature”
www.travelthecanyon.com

“Don’t Fight the Man, Be the Man”
www.legaladdictions.ca